

Designer Ian Longland

"Competent 3D designer able to deliver bespoke and standard product from concept to final manufacture. Excellent CAD, visualisation and animation skills using digital media"

Key skills

- Office design and planning with knowledge of blocks and their creation in compliance with regulations
- Project Management using hand drawings, marker renderings, 3D computer renderings, 3D animations and photography
- Knowledge of numerous manufacturing methods including metal, wood, plastics, rubber and silicon
- Web design including graphic creations in html, gif and flash formats
- Model making and prototype creation skills with machinery and material knowledge

Computer skills

- Adobe Acrobat 6, Illustrator, Photoshop, Director, Page
- 3D Studio Max v8.
- DVD Creator, sampling and editing film clips then creating movies onto DVD
- AutoCAD 2009
- Solid Edge v18

Interests

Qualified CIPST Team Leader (Critical Incident Personal Support Team) with full training for mass incident rescue & support response (Voluntary)

Web design – designed and administrated websites for nine organisations and small companies

Photography

Competitive running, distances between 10 miles and ultra marathons including multi-terrain long distance endurance.

Captain of Haverhill Running Club 2007 – 2009

Shakespeare Marathon
12th Place
28th April, 2009
Time: 2hr 57m 18s

Halstead Ultra Marathon
Winner
10th May, 2008
Time: 3hr 29m 40s

Contact Details

11 Boyton Close, Haverhill,
Suffolk, CB9 0DZ
Tel: 01440 710960 Mob: 07866442069
ian.longland@btinternet.com

Product Designer
Cannon Rubber Ltd
Responsible for all new products from concept to production for large manufacturing company. This included baby care brands Avent Naturally, Cannon Babysafe and client brand products (e.g. Mothercare and Boots). Knowledge of plastic, rubber and silicon manufacturing processes.

1994-1997

Project Designer
Project Office Furniture plc
Responsible for all major client projects, liaising with the client and manufacturing facility. Managed the design process and introduced new product to manufacture. Designed modular and free standing office furniture to comply with relevant BS and FIRA standards.

1997-1999

Senior Designer
Project Office Furniture plc
Managed the design process and introduced new product to manufacture. Designed modular and free standing office furniture to comply with relevant BS and FIRA standards.

2000-2001

Design & Engineering Manager
WorkSpace Office Solutions
Managed a team to deliver new product to manufacture. Assisted sales teams in space planning and equipment of a national and international shows.

2002 to Mar-2006

Design Manager
OEP - Project Office Furniture
Managed all design and engineering processes including design procedures and databases for bills of materials (B.O.M's) and engineering drawings. Provided space planning, presentation, visualization and animation (including 'walkthroughs') to the client and sales personnel. Liaised with personnel on assembly and installation of product.

Apr-2006 to Jan-2009

Design Manager
Project Office Furniture Ltd
Responsible for managing multiple concurrent projects from site survey to installation which included sourcing manufacturing. Generated new business by liaising directly with potential clients and illustrating interior with 3D visualisations, space planning and animations. Supported group organisation (Millbrook Industries) in office and residential refurbishment. Designed and installed the group companies exhibition stands.

Jan-2009 to present

Qualifications

- Solid Edge Rapid Blue Course, 2003
- Katzen Advanced Modeling, 2002
- Solid Edge 3 day Training course, 2002
- AutoCAD Foundation Course, 2001
- AutoCAD release 14 Level 2, 1999
- Supervisor Training by Cambridge & District Chamber of Commerce & Industry, 1999

Education

- BTEC HND Industrial Design Design & Geography
- GCSE9 Subjects A-D

Career History
15 years experience in a commercial environment